

Corporate Strategy Analyst

Bedrocan International B.V. is looking for two (2) strategic thinkers to join its newly setup Internal Consulting team. The team will be part of the Business Development department, located in Amsterdam.

About Bedrocan

Bedrocan is the most experienced producer of medicinal cannabis in the world. We are renowned for our standardized, high-quality products, which is why numerous governments, scientists and pharmaceutical companies have chosen to work with us all around the world. We believe that our product is one of a kind and the best in the world.

As our reach and influence is rapidly expanding in the global cannabis industry, we are looking for highly qualified and motivated professionals. Are you ready to join our team and play a vital role in this exciting journey?

What you will do

The high-impact role as Corporate Strategy Analyst will require working on engagements across the company, advising the management team on issues including corporate strategy, M&As, joint ventures and investments, operational best practices, and pricing strategy, among others. The analysts will serve as an interface between corporate finance and strategy.

As a member of the Internal Consulting team, you will combine traditional management consulting skills with applied corporate finance theory to create a strategic roadmap for Bedrocan. You will be monitoring key market developments, regulatory trends and analysing the competitive landscape to identify opportunities for Bedrocan to grow organically and through acquisitions.

Who you are

- You have 2-4 years of experience in formulating corporate strategy gained with a top-tier consulting firm or within a corporate development department of a large private or publicly traded company;
- Strong understanding of the principles of corporate finance, valuation methods and financial statement analysis;
- Well-developed quantitative and financial modelling skills, including the ability to work on sophisticated financial models;
- An MBA or Masters in a related field from a top business school or other graduate program;
- Strong project management skills;
- Excellent presentation skills, including strong verbal and writing capabilities

What we offer

- An exciting job at a fast developing and internationally expanding company where change creates opportunities for growth and the employees believe in the success of our products
- Reimbursement of your travel costs
- A company laptop and mobile phone
- Opportunity to occasionally work from home
