- Keeping up with the developments and provide expert advice on the legal environment and responsibilities.
- Conducting legal research and reviewing the company's strategy pertaining to legal actions.
- Anticipate issues and identify proactive solutions that will eliminate or mitigate risks.
- Creating and promulgating directives of corporate acts and decisions.
- Ensuring legal compliance regarding mergers and acquisitions activity, creating new entities and managing the organisation's intellectual property.
- Maintaining knowledge of the organisation's operations and legal documents.
- Handling statutory filings, such as licensing forms.

Your background

- Juris Doctor, LL.M. or similar degree from a top-tier law school.
- 10-15 years proven general counselling experience in a business environment.
- Experience working in a heavily-regulated industry.
- Experience working with tender processes.
- Proficient legal experience in fund investments, venture capital financing and M&A.
- Experience with corporate governance issues.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Knowledge of statutes, rules and regulations pertaining to businesses.
- Proficient understanding of business sensitivities and confidentiality.
- Top candidates will be team players with outstanding advocacy and people skills.

Our Offer

- We offer a full-time job with a market competitive salary at a fast developing and internationally expanding company in the world of medical cannabis
- A lease car
- A company laptop and mobile phone
